WELCOME TO MAGICFEST 2023

WELCOME TO THE 14TH YEAR OF MAGICFEST!

I find that there are two types of people that come to magic shows. The first are the believers! Those that are happy to suspend their disbelief and go along with the magical ride. Then there are the sceptics – those that see magic as a puzzle that must be broken down and solved. They want to know how everything works. Then there are those that are “brought” along by family and friends.

Regardless of where you sit – this year we want you to share the magic! If that means sharing the wonder of a show or your theories on how the tricks are done – we don't mind. Everyone enjoys magic in their own way. And we have lots of great opportunities for believers and sceptics alike!

The Christmas Special is our full evening show, with myself, contemporary conjuror Oliver Tabor and, in keeping with our goals of fostering local talent, the fantastic Fraser Stokes. A riotously fun and magical night out for the whole family. Or perhaps you want to do a magic workshop with your kids? Then come visit Edinburgh's newest magic shop Wonder & Co near Haymarket for our hands-on workshops.

After the success of Future Magicians last year, and the wonderful stories that the 2022 participants have shared with me over the last 9 months, we've decided to bring it back again for 2023. Five young magicians, paired with five mentors – sharing their skills and experience – with the goal to build an act ready for performance at the 2023 Magic Festival. I'm really looking forward to seeing what this year's cohort will achieve!

We will very shortly be presenting our digital Magic & Theatre workshop resource for those who want to learn how to turn a 'trick' into 'magic'. In partnership with Lyceum Theatre and Creative Informatics at the University of Edinburgh, we've built a 'choose your own adventure' style workshop which will very soon be available to use from the MagicFest website. This will complement our existing free to use resource 'Virtual Magic School' for children aged 7-11 years old – learning magic simultaneously with science and maths – all linked up to the Scottish and English Curricula.

Finally, we were delighted to consult on the magic-&-mystery themed “Castle of Light” at Edinburgh Castle this year. Expect a dazzling tapestry of illuminations with a couple magical surprises along the way!

Whether you are a believer or a sceptic, whether you spectate or participate – we encourage you to 'share the magic' and bring a bit of wonder into your life and that of those around you this Christmas.

See you soon

CRACK OPEN A FESTIVE PERFORMANCE OF STUNNING MAGIC!

Straight from sell-out shows around the globe, magician Kevin Quantum and special guests Oliver Tabor and Fraser Stokes are back with NEW astonishing illusions and big laughs in a riotously fun and magical full-evening Christmas show for the whole family!

Trained by Penn & Teller, and having reached the final stages of Britain's Got Talent, Kevin's shows are a mix of amazement, laughter, audience participation and derring-do!

After sell-out shows last Christmas, we're so excited to be back to unwrap the Christmas Special with an all new show to fry your brains once again!

VINCENT GAMBINI "THIS IS NOT A MAGIC SHOW"

What makes magic magic?

And is there really a Magic Circle Emergency Hotline for magicians to call in distress?

'This is not a magic show' is a critically acclaimed performance of and about sleight-of-hand magic: its invisible mechanics, its clichés, and what it tells us about live theatre and make-believe. In a conversational yet crafted approach, Vincent Gambini presents astonishing close-up magic that invites us to question how enchantment and wonder are made within a theatrical situation.

Possibly the first of its kind, Vincent Gambini's 'This is not a magic show' is part performance-lecture, part deconstructed showbiz, and part magic tricks that leave you, like, omg.

★★★★★ "This thoughtful, playful and multi-layered piece will make you question how we watch and what we see." - The Guardian

★★★★★ "A gentle, cerebral show in which Gambini unpicks both his tricks and the expectations of his audience..." - The Stage

VINCENT GAMBINI “OUT OF THIN AIR”

‘Out of thin air’ brings together new poetic illusions by Vincent Gambini. Sitting at a table with a deck of cards, the magician takes us backstage into how shows are made, what magic might be, and what holds the universe together (maybe).

There are stories about magicians at magic conventions, an attempt at presenting a show in which nothing happens, and magic poems about none other than you, the spectator.

Expect deft sleight of hand, strange poetry, and low-key spectacle.

RICHARD WISEMAN “THE WORLD'S GREATEST CARD TRICK AND OTHER MYSTERIES”

The world's greatest card trick was invented in 1942. Over the years it has been performed by many famous magicians, amazed and astounded millions of people, and made Winston Churchill late for Parliament. In this intimate show, a small group of people join magician Professor Richard Wiseman as he reveals the unknown genius behind the trick, demonstrates other jaw dropping mysteries from the mind of this master magician, and celebrates the invention of the impossible. Expect erudite entertainment, a peek into the secret world of magic, and, of course, a performance of the world's greatest card trick.

Psychologist and magician Professor Richard Wiseman has published over 100 academic papers, written several popular psychology books (including The Luck Factor and 59 Seconds) that have sold over 3 million copies worldwide, and created YouTube videos that have attracted over 800 million views. He is one of the most followed psychologists on Twitter, and has worked with David Copperfield, Penn and Teller, and Derren Brown.

GARY JAMES

“WONDERLAND”

Enjoy a fast-paced family-friendly show with jaw-dropping magic inspired by wide-eyed childhood memories and a career in entertainment.

In WONDERLAND Gary captures the excitement and mystery from his childhood visits to the legendary Lothian Road store by the same name. Who'd have thought that family trips to this shop as a child would have inspired a life in entertainment?

With countless TV appearances under his belt, Gary even made JK Rowling 'appear' by magic at Edinburgh Castle for the launch of the first Harry Potter book!

- Two times past president of the Edinburgh Magic Circle EMC
- Twice awarded EMC 'magician of the year'
- Awarded the Murray wand for showmanship by Scottish Association of Magic Societies
- Awarded inner Magic Circle Membership with Silver Star

MAGICFEST BEYOND OUTREACH PROGRAMME

MAGIC AND THEATRE

Improve your Magic and Theatre skills with a new online course!

In collaboration with the Royal Lyceum Theatre, Creative Informatics Resident Entrepreneur Programme and Edinburgh International Magic Festival, Kevin Quantum is developing a new digital course, using cutting edge "choose your own adventure" technology, focusing on the areas of theatre considered most valid for many magicians – presence, character and direction.

We now need your help. Sign up <https://magicfest.co.uk/magicandtheatre/> to be first to trial the new course for free when it launches later this year! Recommended for Ages 12+.

VIRTUAL MAGIC SCHOOL

Learn to read minds, make objects appear and disappear, and other mysterious skills!

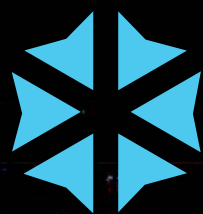

Join BGT semi-finalist Kevin Quantum, your new magic teacher, for an 8-lesson virtual magic course, using cutting edge 'choose your own adventure' technology, allowing participants to have as close to a live workshop experience as modern technology allows.

As well as cool magic tricks, children will learn presentation and craft skills, numeracy and literacy skills and much more. Elements are tied to the Scottish and English curricula making it as easy as possible for teachers to integrate this resource into their year and is ready to use "straight out of the box"!

What's more – the course is FREE to any and all schools that want it. Sign up at magicfest.co.uk/vms for more info and to make sure that your school gets access!

Supported by Baillie Gifford, Kiran's Trust and through CreativeScotland as part of the Creative Digital Initiative, funded by the Scottish Government.

FUTURE MAGICIANS

Come see the magic stars of the future!

Future Magicians returns for a second year; a new MagicFest programme designed to assist young magicians with their performance development.

Over the course of eight weeks, up to six student magicians will receive mentorship, guiding them to create a high-quality act lasting around 8 minutes that will eventually be presented as part of the MagicFest programme at the end of December!

Magicians often work in isolation, with knowledge passed down in 1-on-1 mentorship models. There are no further education courses in Scotland for students wishing to develop their art and interact, face to face, with other student practitioners.

This is another step in our attempts to create high-quality in-person and virtual resources for student magicians who wish to

- 1) be part of a larger learning community,
- 2) understand and benefit from the wider theatrical arts, and,
- 3) progress to a more proficient level of performance.
