WELCOME TO MAGICFEST 2026

WELCOME TO THE 17TH EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL MAGIC FESTIVAL!

Seventeen is an interesting age. You're standing on the edge of adulthood, and the world can begin to look a little less mysterious than it did when you were a child. So this year, we want to push in the opposite direction: to rediscover that sense of childhood wonder, to notice the extraordinary hiding in ordinary places, and to find magic everywhere.

Even our front cover has a little magic hidden inside it. It was inspired by Stone Roses frontman Ian Brown's unexpected cameo in Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban. I'm a huge Stone Roses fan, and after recreating the image myself in a photoshoot a few years ago, it felt like the perfect inspiration for our 17th festival.

Inside, there is plenty to discover. Professor Richard Wiseman has kindly shared part of his remarkable Houdini photographic collection with us for a free-to-view exhibition. Vincent Gambini presents a unique magic show for an audience of just one person, with only a limited number of performances available. We welcome Fringe favourites Dan Bastianelli and Tim Licata alongside exciting up-and-coming local performer Jamie Leonard, while the fantastic Ben Hart joins me onstage for Magical Christmas, our flagship Christmas show at the Church Hill Theatre.

We're also continuing to take magic into unexpected spaces, returning to Lauriston Castle and The Caledonian for two very different immersive experiences. And for our youngest audiences, Harvest Moon combines music and magic in a beautiful performance for wee ones and their carers, inspired by Gaelic songs and traditions.

Roald Dahl once wrote, "Those who don't believe in magic will never find it." So explore. Look closer. Be curious. And whatever age you are, come and find magic everywhere.

See you soon,
Kevin Quantum, Programming Director

TWO OF BRITAIN'S MOST EXCITING MAGICIANS.
ONE SPECTACULAR CHRISTMAS SHOW.

THE SECRET ROOM AT LAURISTON CASTLE

DISCOVER UNSOLVED MYSTERIES WITHIN ONE OF EDINBURGH'S HIDDEN GEMS.

Hidden away at the end of a winding driveway, Lauriston Castle remains one of the city's most enchanting secrets — a treasure trove of timeless tapestries, rich décor and whispered tales of secret chambers, strange experiments, and the extraordinary lives of its former residents.

This Christmas, three expert magicians breathe new life into those stories through spellbinding illusion, mind-bending sleight-of-hand and a touch of mischief. Discover the castle's hidden corners as each performer reveals a chapter of its mysterious past — from noble tricksters to doomed inventors and fortune-seekers who gambled everything on a dream.

Set against the castle's breathtaking Edwardian interiors and panoramic views over the Firth of Forth, The Secret Room is an unforgettable journey into history, wonder, and imagination.

Featuring card magician Lewis Barlow, mentalist Cameron Gibson, sleight-of-hand artist Tim Licata (19 Dec only) and magician-inventor Luke Osey (20 Dec only).

HARVEST MOON

AN IMMERSIVE MOONLIT PERFORMANCE FOR BABIES (5–18 MONTHS) AND THEIR GROWN-UPS

Harvest Moon is a gentle, sensory performance celebrating the journey of growing up — and the ever-changing bond between parent and child. Blending live traditional Gaelic song, harp and percussion with immersive design and poetic movement, the piece travels through the phases of the moon: from the wonder of babyhood, through playful toddler years and stormy adolescence, to a reflective full moon moment of release.

Inspired by Gaelic lullabies, working songs and seasonal rituals, Harvest Moon unfolds within a soft, atmospheric environment where babies sit close to the performers, creating a shared experience of closeness and wonder.

After each performance, the space transforms into a sensory playground for exploration and play.

VINCENT GAMBINI

“THIS IS NOT A MAGIC SHOW”

FORGET EVERYTHING YOU KNOW ABOUT MAGIC
AND MAGICIANS... NOW REMEMBER IT ALL AGAIN.

When This Is Not a Magic Show premiered in Edinburgh in 2015, it changed the rules of the game. This is a trailblazing work of theatre-magic in which Vincent Gambini questions the show itself, and all our expectations along with it.

It is both a unique performance of astonishing sleight-of-hand magic and a theatrical exploration of magic's invisible mechanics, its clichés, and what it tells us about live performance and make-believe.

Cards transform inexplicably before our eyes, silver coins appear out of nowhere, and our own perception of reality explodes into a thousand mirrors.

Through his conversational yet crafted approach, Gambini presents a show within a show. It's about magic and theatre, but mostly about ourselves, and how easily we suspend our disbelief.

★★★★★ “This thoughtful, playful and multi-layered piece will make you question how we watch and what we see.” – The Guardian

★★★★★ “An alternative low-key magic show... Quiet, deliberate and exceptionally controlled.” – Time Out

★★★★★ “Takes apart the clockwork mechanics of wonder in ingenious style.” – Fest Mag

EXPERIMENTAL SHOWS

“THE BAG” RICHARD WISEMAN

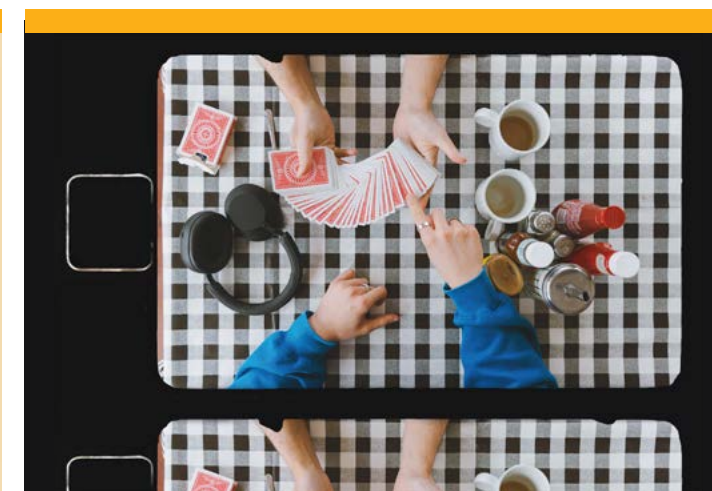

In 1967, a student attended classes in a large opaque bag. To this day, no one knows the identity of this enigmatic individual. Inspired by this strange experiment, THE BAG is a work in progress and explores this radical study. Every performance is different. How will you and your group behave? Expect interactivity, mystery, fun, psychology, magic, and a banana.

About Richard Wiseman

Psychologist and magician Richard Wiseman has published more than 100 academic papers and written several bestselling psychology books — including The Luck Factor and 59 Seconds — which have sold over three million copies worldwide. His YouTube videos have attracted over 800 million views, and he is among the most followed psychologists on X (formerly Twitter). Richard has also worked with David Copperfield, Penn & Teller, and Derren Brown.

VINCENT GAMBINI “CLOSE-UP”

Inside a café, surrounded by unsuspecting customers, you are invited to sit at a table and watch a 15-minute performance. In front of your very eyes, playing cards transform inexplicably and sugar cubes vanish without a trace. But as you listen to the performer's voice and the sounds of the café on headphones, the line between reality and fiction becomes increasingly thin: is this a real café, or a film set filled with actors?

Combining expert sleight-of-hand magic with the dreamlike nature of cinema, Close-up invites you to briefly reimagine everyday life as an uncanny illusion.

Supported by Farnham Maltings' New Popular, Attenborough Centre for the Creative Arts, the University of Sussex, and Arts Council England.

TIM LICATA

“ABSOLUTELY MAGIC”

Chicago-born magician Tim Licata brings his sold-out Fringe show Absolutely Magic to MagicFest, with an hour of incredible illusions, mind reading and delightful deception.

With an easy charm and playful sense of humour, Tim draws audiences into a world where nothing behaves quite as expected. Mind-bending moments unfold with the audience very much part of the action. Fast-moving and wonderfully unpredictable, Absolutely Magic is all about the fun of being fooled — and enjoying every second of it.

Winner of the 2025 Edinburgh Magic Circle Close-Up Competition.

JAMIE LEONARD

“BLINK OF AN EYE”

Up-and-coming Edinburgh magician Jamie Leonard brings Blink of an Eye to MagicFest this December — a stylish, story-driven show blending comedy, sleight of hand and moments of quiet wonder.

Exploring how our perspective changes as we grow, and the things we miss when we’re not really looking, Jamie uses magic and storytelling to play with our sense of time and attention, moving between fast-paced comedy and more reflective moments.

Playful, personal and full of surprises, the show invites audiences to slow down, look a little closer and enjoy the moment before it disappears in the blink of an eye.

★★★★★ “One of the best magic shows I’ve seen, clearly on the cusp of becoming MASSIVE!” – Mix Up Theatre

DAN “THE BOY WHO DREW DOORS” BASTIANELLI

What happens when a story starts telling itself?

Through his own imagination, a boy explores impossible worlds where ordinary objects become extraordinary, drawings come to life, and anything seems possible. As the story unfolds, the line between what is real and what is imagined begins to blur.

Magician Dan Bastianelli brings this enchanting story to life through masterful magic, sleight-of-hand and theatrical storytelling, guiding audiences on a journey through childhood, wonder and the limitless possibilities of imagination.

A theatrical magic show about the worlds we create when we’re young — and what happens when, as adults, we forget how to visit them.
